Program:

Kelsey Lovett "Impact 100 and Baldwin County"

Kelsey will discuss how Impact 100 works in the Baldwin County Community. Kelsey will share the process for application and award of grants and also discuss support that the organization gives throughout the county. She will highlight the most recent grants, how to join and how to support in other ways.

Kelsey Lovett is a Certified Financial Planner and Investment Wealth Manager with Ameriprise Financial. Her passion is helping people learn how to invest and save their money so that they can be more generous with their wealth. She has 17 years of experience working with and serving clients.

1st Unitarian Principle: We covenant to affirm and promote the inherent worth and dignity of every person.

Pantry Habit Thank you for contributing to our Pantry. There is always a need for our Food Pantry! We particularly need pasta, hearty soups, canned green veggies and fruit. One reason people like it so much is that we don't require identification or proof of need. "Take what you need. Give what you can". This has worked well for us! Our neighbors appreciate our generosity! So, THANK YOU for your caring! YOU DO MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

Baldwin Family Village, Kate Carver & Sarah Laurio:

"Transitional Housing for Homeless Women & Children"

Dumas Wesley Community center approaches poverty, homelessness and inequity by offering long term transformation. By using a connected web of services: transitional housing, youth enrichment, senior wellness, emergency aid and workforce training as well as food, clothing and transportation- the center addresses a wide spectrum of human need. Dumas Wesley recently expanded its mission with the launch of the County's first housing program for homeless women and children in Fairhope.

Kate Carver has served in a number of key positions with the Salvation Army, the Mobile County Sheriff's Office and Volunteer Mobile. She is currently the Executive Director of the Dumas Wesley Community Center and has been leading the Center for 15 years. Sarah Laurio is Associate Executive Director of Dumas Wesley Community Center overseeing the Sybil Smith Family Village & Baldwin Family Village.
